

Women in Pragmatism Workshop

University College London

North Cloisters (registrations and refreshments) and Jeremy Bentham Room (sessions)

2 August 2022

9.15am – 5.30pm

For catering purposes we ask all attendees (including non-speakers) to register here, by Sunday 24 July.

Conference Programme

8.45-9.15 Registration (UCL North Cloisters)

9.15 Welcome (Jeremy Bentham Room)

9.30 – 10.45 Session 1 – Three minute work in progress presentations, followed by discussion (Jeremy Bentham Room)

Chair: Núria Sara Miras Boronat

Gloria Luque Moya, University of Malaga

The Art of Living – Meliorism in John Dewey and Confucius

Juliana Acosta López de Mesa, Universidad de Antioquia

The Proof of Pragmatism in the Normative Sciences

Chiara Ambrosio, University College London

How to be a Pragmatist about Proteins

Donna West, State University of New York at Cortland

Children's Use of Narratives as Early Abductions

Inka Kosonen, Loughborough University

Gender Equality in Alternative Organisations: a Pragmatist Inquiry into UK Craft Brewing

Piera Morlacchi University of Sussex

Recrafting Work and Democracy: Jane Addams' Pragmatism, Hull-House and the Labor Museum

10.45 – 11.15 coffee break (North Cloisters)

11.15 – 12.30 – Session 2 Mentoring, facilitated by Àger Pérez Casanovas (Jeremy Bentham Room)

12.30-1.30 – lunch

Kindly sponsored by SAAP, the BSHP, and the UCL Department of Science and Technology Studies (North Cloisters)

1.30 – 3.30 Session 3 – Scholars Circles (Jeremy Bentham Room; see back of this document for abstracts and instructions)

Facilitators: Chiara Ambrosio and Michela Bella

Circle 1	Circle 2	Circle 3
Sunny Williams The University of Texas at Dallas How Pragmatism Informs Sodalism Susan Dieleman Southern Illinois University Edwardsville Pragmatism, Nonideal Theory, and Resistance Federica Castelli University of Roma Tre Street, neighborhood, democracy. A book on Jane Addams and Hull House Maria Regina Brioschi University of Milan Department of Philosophy Peirce's logic and philosophy of relations	Yvonne Huetter-Almerigi University of Bologna What is the concept of “individuality” letting us do? Considerations from philosophy of language Isabel Kaeslin University of Fribourg The Sociology of Philosophy: Between Eudaimonism and Cosmopolitanism Konatsu Nishigai Anglia Ruskin University/ The University of Cambridge Jeremy Bentham's Legal Pragmatism Sarah Wellan University of Potsdam, Germany / Charité - Universitätsmedizin Berlin, Germany On a Certain Kind of Blindness	Àger Pérez Casanovas Universitat de Barcelona Reading Maxine Greene's aesthetic education from a multisensory perspective Dina Mendonça IFILNOVA, NOVA FCSH, UNL Collaborative thinking and the need for pluralism - Dewey, P4C and Feminism Heidi Salaverría Independent Researcher A Pragmatist Reading of Maggie Nelson's Reparative Aesthetics of Care Elin Danielsen Huckerby Department of Philosophy and Religious Studies, Norwegian University of Science and Technology / Inclusive Science and European Democracies (ISEED) A critical difference. The potential of a Rortyan critical pragmatism alive to Sarah Ahmed's transformative practices

Please note: Abstracts of the Scholar Circles sessions will be circulated in advance among participants and presenters registered for the workshop. Please register for the workshop and email Chiara Ambrosio (c.ambrosio@ucl.ac.uk) to receive the abstracts via email.

3.30-4.00 coffee break

4.00 – 5.30 Women in Pragmatism: Past, Present and Future, edited by Michela Bella and Núria Sara Miras Boronat (Springer 2022), book launch and round table (Jeremy Bentham Room, open to all EPC attendees)

5.30 – onward: Networking and informal pre-conference drinks at TCR Bar and Lounge, 183 Tottenham Court Road

Conference Venue and Directions

All sessions will take place in the UCL main building (entrance from Gower Street). Here is the route from the UCL Main Gate in Gower Street to the North Cloisters (registration and information desk; coffee breaks; lunch). The Jeremy Bentham Room is also in the main building, and can also be accessed from the North Cloisters.

